A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER

On behalf of the Government of Ontario, I am delighted to extend warm greetings to the executives and staff of the Group of Gold Line as you celebrate the company's 25th anniversary. Congratulations on reaching this significant milestone in your business!

As one of Canada's most diverse provinces, we have ties of family, friendship and commerce to all corners of the world. Our idea of community does not stop at our borders. Telecommunications and its allied products and technologies bring the world closer by connecting people and cultures.

I want to commend the Group of Gold Line for its commitment to telecommunications technologies and solutions that allow people to learn, connect and do business across the globe.

Please accept my best wishes for much continued success in the years to come.
